"Smyrna Carpets."

(From a Report by Consul E. L. Harris.)

The celebrated "Smyrna Carpet" is not made in Smyrna; it is a product of the vilayet of Aidin, of which

IN order to dress well it is not necessary to dress extravagantly—merely in good form—in good taste—in Kuppenheimer Clothes.

The garments that we are selling this season are wonderfully good. The favorable comments and entire satisfaction resulting from the quality and style of these garments, have more than justified our implicit confidence in the superiority of clothes made by The House of Kuppenheimer.

We have served some of the most particular men in the city—many of them the best dressed—and we shall be pleased indeed to serve you.

We have anything you need in Gents' Furnishings line. Our line of Boys' Clothing is up-to-date and of the best quality. We press all our Clothing, and give 10 per cent. discount to students.

Smyrna is the capital. The chief places of manufacture are the villages of Uschak, Koule, Ghiardis, Makri, Melesos, Kirgatch, Axar, and Demirdi. The industry gives employment to thousands of needy people, especially women, who are obliged to do the work almost entirely by hand. The men spend their time in the coffee-houses drinking strong coffee and smoking numberless cigarettes, all in true Oriental fashion. Little girls are made to take up the work early, at seven or ten years of age at the latest, and they keep at it unceasingly until they go to their graves.

The market for the wools is held every Thursday from dawn to sunset in the bazaar of Uschak, which is then filled with purchasers who have arrived on buffaloes, camels, donkeys and other picturesque beast of burden. The spun wools are not dyed by the weavers themselves but by special dyers, a more than 5,000 female weavers are employed at Uschak in the preparation of carpets. The operators are generally members of the same family but there are a number of girls who earn about six to seven cents per day. The Ghiardis carpet are generally smaller than those of Uschak. Very fine carpets, closely woven and of harmonious colors, are produced in imitation of the Persian carpets.

The carpets are made into bales of 250 pounds each and covered with goat skins. The caravans pass the night in the open country at the foot of some hill, the drivers under tents and the camels and their loads in the open air. Very large carpets, too heavy to be packed, are folded and thrown across the backs of the camels in the form of a covering. When the caravans arrive in Smyrna they are spread out, beaten, broomed and repacked in bales weighing 500 to 600 pounds each for exportation.
